

Add & Drop

Students may add or drop courses within the period stated in the Law Center Academic Catalog or schedule booklet, through Banner.

Charges created by adding and/or dropping courses after fees are paid will be posted to the student's account. Check Banner under account summary daily.

Please note the following exceptions:

- First year students cannot drop classes.
- Cross-registration courses cannot be dropped online but must be dropped at the visiting school.
- Classes dropped after the 14th day of class during the fall and spring semesters or 7th day of class during summer session are noted with a "W" on transcripts.
- Full-time students cannot drop below 12 hours and remain full-time, and part-time students cannot drop below eight hours and remain enrolled in school.
- Candidates for graduation cannot drop courses using JAGNET or JAGCALL, but must report to the enrollment office for processing.
- Part-time day and evening students cannot drop legal writing and legal research.
- Evening Division students must complete 48 semester hours before transferring to the Day Division.
