

Confidentiality

It is the policy of the Southern University Law Center that all matters discussed is strictly confidential and privileged. Records are maintained in the office of the Associate Vice Chancellor on each visit for statistical purposes.